WORSHIP NEWS:

We are so happy to have Sarah Hann adding her musical gifts and creativity to our 11am worship service today! Many of you have heard her amazing drumming. Today she will also be playing the offertory music on an instrument called an mbira. Pronounced UM-beer-ra. The mbira is a traditional African instrument consisting of metal tines of different lengths placed on top of a wooden soundboard. Enjoy!

To those who want to hear...
Bishop Sandra Stiener Ball will be traveling around the conference to meet with laity to address what happened at the General Conference session, the outcomes and impacts of any decisions or actions taken for clergy , for local congregations , and for the Conference. She will also discuss how we will continue to do our ministry and mission as the WV Conference. If you have questions or desire accurate information about the actions and impacts of the Called Session please plan to attend Southern and Greenbrier District meeting on Tuesday, March 26th from 6-8pm at Temple UMC in Beckley.

GIVE BACK GOOD FRIDAY

All area churches have selected an item to stock our local food pantry. Our item is personal hygiene products (toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, shampoo, deodorant, feminine hygiene products, etc.) please begin bringing in these items and leaving them in the Sanctuary Hospitality Area. We will deliver them on Good Friday, April 19th for a dedication in the Green Space downtown at Noon.

LUMC wants to let our college students and military people know that we are thinking about them and that they are still valuable members of our church family even when they are away. We hope to send them a little something in April (to correspond with final exams). This is the list that we have from last year. Has someone graduated and moved on? Do you have someone in mind that you don't see on this list? Please help us update!

From Pastors Tim & Bev:

All of us continue to have great interest in the action taken at General Conference. We urge you to listen to Adam Hamilton as he shares with his congregation what he believes about homosexuality and the future of the United Methodist Church.
