Opening Song:

I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day

I heard the bells on Christmas day their old familiar carols play and wild and sweet their songs repeat of peace on Earth, goodwill to men.

I thought how as the day had come, the belfries of all Christendom had rolled along th' unbroken song of peace on earth, goodwill to men.

And in despair I bowed my head:
There is no peace on earth, I said,
For hate is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, goodwill to men.

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
God is not dead, nor doth he sleep;
the wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, goodwill to men.

Till ringing, singing, on its way, the world revolved from night to day.
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime,
of peace on earth, goodwill to men!

Musical Benediction:

Go Tell It on the Mountain

Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere,
go, tell it on the mountain,
that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, behold throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere,
go, tell it on the mountain,
that Jesus Christ is born.

The shepherds feared and trembled, when lo! Above the earth, rang out the angel chorus that hailed the Savior's birth.

Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere,
go, tell it on the mountain,
that Jesus Christ is born.

Down in a lowly manger
the humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere,
go, tell it on the mountain,
that Jesus Christ is born.
