Let's wrap it up= Everything in the world is about to be wrapped up!

Take nothing for granted!

Stay wide-awake in prayer!

Love like your life depends on it= Most of all, love each other as if your life depended on it. Love makes up for practically anything.

Be generous= Be generous with the different things God gave you, passing them around so all get in on it: if words, let it be God's words; if help, let it be God's hearty help.

Shine your God light= Let God's bright presence will be evident in everything through Jesus, and he'll get all the credit as the One mighty in everything—encores to the end of time. Oh, yes!
Glory is just around the corner! Friends, when life gets really difficult, don't jump to the conclusion that God isn't on the job. Instead, be glad that you are in the very thick of what Christ experienced. This is a spiritual refining process, with glory just around the corner.

Psalm 23

God, my shepherd! I don't need a thing. You have bedded me down in lush meadows, you find me quiet pools to drink from. True to your word, you let me catch my breath and send me in the right direction. Even when the way goes through Death Valley, I'm not afraid when you walk at my side. Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.

How does this ignite hope in my heart?

What did I need reminded of today?

Bake & Pray

a workshop on baking bread as a spiritual practice

Saturday, November 28th
8:45am-11:30am
$20

The Bake & Pray™ workshop focuses on learning breadmaking in terms of liturgy rather than recipe, allowing the rhythms of rest and repetition to shape the baker as the baker shapes their bread. Whether a sourdough master or scared of yeast, this process will open your eyes to God's gift of bread in a new way!
